

Doorstep Fraud

An unexpected knock at the door?

Could mean a break of the law.

Door step fraud happens when sales people use clever tactics to pressurise you into buying something you don't want or agreeing to work that does not need to be done. It can also include bogus charity collections and promoting goods or services that are never delivered or are of very poor quality.

If in doubt keep them out.

To report Doorstep Fraud call the Action Fraud reporting centre

CG3/421

Action Fraud
National Fraud & Cyber Crime Reporting Centre
0300 123 2040

STRONGHOLD
Fighting Organised Crime in Partnership

