Circular walk...

Heading south from the bottom of the steps with the canal to your right enjoy the 'Green' way-marked walk, shown as a red line on this map. Returning you to this point the walk takes about one and a half hours to complete.

If you have a smartphone or tablet with you, this poster and details of the walk can be found at www.bletchleyfennystratford-tc.gov.uk to ensure you do not lose your way and to find out more about the local area.

In the area...

Fenny Stratford has a rich history and plenty to explore. Head over the canal into the town; at the mini roundabouts there is Fenny Stratford's main shopping street, Aylesbury Street, to your left. The town has many public houses, restaurants and takeaways if you seek refreshments and several independent local businesses offering a range of services
